Stand:

Issue regarding the horse Conquerer Galactus, was a veterinarian scratch from the 2nd race on June 2, 2020. Was added to the Veterinarian list and was on the list when entered back for today on Thursday June 4, 2020. The horse remains on list and must follow TB Rule 27.08, is a Steward scratch ineligible.

Trainer Daryl Ezra entered two horses that ended up in same race, unfortunately common ownership was revealed after race had been drawn and was subsequently a Steward scratch ineligible.

Races:

37 in to go

Race 1, Turf, #4 One Pound Sterling threw its head up compromising its start, rest ok. Jockey Max Badal cautioned on urging, did use the crop in the upward position while making with his horse.

Slight delay with the prices for the first race, technical issue with tote.

Race 2, clear

Race 3, Turf, Jockey claim of foul, #6 Butterfly Strike, S. Singh, 2nd on #4 Milwaukee Magic, M Lee Buchanan, 1st, approaching the finish. Upon review of the front and upper pan camera angles, it does appear the # 4 is drifting in approaching the finish but is clear of the #6 and does not interfere with the progression of the #6. S. Singh felt he came in and closed the rail and he had to check, he stated his horse had full momentum. MLee Buchanan thought he was clear and no issues. The Stewards disallowed the claim of foul. MLee Buchanan was cited for excessive use of the crop and issued a warning

Race 4, clear

Race 5, Stewards inquiry, #5 Marcus, B. Cheyne, 1st and #7 Summer Retreat, P. Mailhot 3rd around the 1/16th pole, upon review of the upper pan and front tower views, the #5 is outside drifting in as the #7 is in the middle and appears to steady a stride, also JCOF #7 on #5. After speaking with the riders and reviewing the films mentioned the JCOF was disallowed and the Stewards Inquiry revealed no change to the order.
