Backstretch:

Received a call from Jockey Agent Richard DePass, represents Jockey Luis Saez, requested to ride the Queen Elizabeth Stakes in Keeneland on October 12/19. Is serving a 3 day suspension October 9, 11 and 12/19 from the Woodbine Ricoh Mile on September 14/19. request was granted and TB Ruling 11268 was generated.

Received a call from the Stewards in Kentucky, requested a copy of the Stewards report and rulings associated from the Ricoh Woodbine Mile.

Jockey Brandon Duchaine, his parents owned a horse last year trained by Claudia Rabstein, the foal certificate has been missing, was signed out by Rabstein and he feels she is holding papers in lieu of an O/S amount of $600. Rabstein did sign papers out. We explained that a trainer cannot hold foal papers and would be held accountable if they were the last one with the papers out of office.

Claudia Rabstein, does not have the foal papers, signed them out but gave them to either the van driver or the owners. Was last year, not worried about O/S amount, will look again at home but is willing to help out if they are not found. Duchaine to check with van driver and look for their colours as well that are missing.
