Stand:

Issue regarding ownership on #6 Uncle Lou, 4th race. Owner Terry Roberts passed away, Spouse Wendy did provide the required documentation and licensed as owner.

After the third race a call was received from the CTI (Chief Test Inspector) Meaghan McGirr regarding the Winner of the 1st race JMR Victory Lap, test was abandoned due to the horse rearing and getting loose from the handler and running into the barn area, a report is to follow.

Film Reviews:

Race 3, June 8, 2020. Jockey Sunny Singh aboard #6 Butterfly Strike (2nd) for possible frivolous claim of foul against the winner #4 Milwaukee Magic approaching the finish. Mr Singh stated that he anticipated the horse coming a little further and he checked his mount. He was aware that it was a mistake, he was issued a stern caution going forward.

Races:

40 in to go

Race 1, Turf, #1 JMR Silent Lake appeared to take a bad step mid stretch, spoke with rider P. Mailhot and he felt that the horse spooked a little as the winner #3 JMR Victory Lap went by on the outside. Rest ok

Race 2, #2 Marvel and #5 Addi Bear both off awkwardly and slow, rest ok

Race 3, Turf, #8 Giovanni Ponti appeared to run up on heels of #4 mid stretch, rest good. Jockey Isabella Wenc urged forward and the room in front closed, she was cautioned on urging when no available room.

Race 4, clear, Apprentice Nikki Alderson cautioned on urging when well in front of field.

Race 5, Jockey Claim of foul, #3 Spinosa, C. Defreitas, 6th on #2 Des Bois, S. Singh, 3rd at the start. Upon review of the back tower and upper pan camera angles, it is apparent the #4 My Marc Andre, M. Lee Buchanan 4th, bears in at the start and gets to the #3 and #3 turns the #2 out creating more interference. After review and speaking to all the riders involved, the COF against #2 was disallowed and #4 was 4th placed 6th.
